Notes on a Trip to Frankfort.

(Delayed Letter)

My first trip to Frankfort, the capital, and I thought I would write a few lines for the benefit of those who were not there and have never been there. On Tuesday, Dec. 9th, in company with J. L. Anderson, J. L. Kennedy, W. C. Cummins and George Condor I boarded the train at Crab Orchard and arrived at the capital city at 6:30 P. M. and found it decorated from center to circumference. We went to the Capital Hotel and there we found the merriest crowd I ever saw. They were there from all over the State to see the new governor inaugurated. Everybody was happy and good feeling existed all round. There was no political feeling as far as I could see. After supper our crowd took in the town. I let George Cender take the lead. With his dudeish dress and quick and elastic step he looked every inch a city man, and J. L. Kennedy with his ever ready wit kept us in a good humor and big-hearted Will Cummins, ever ready to do his part and lend a helping hand, and J. L. Anderson with his commanding appearance, saying "thou shalt lead us so far and no further," I felt quite safe from snipe-hunters. Well, the next morning we went to see the new capitol, which is now nearing completion. We were not allowed to go in the building but we walked around and viewed it from every side and will say it is a building that every Kentuckian should see. It is a thing of beauty and a joy to behold. It is a credit to any State in the union. We went back to the old capitol and viewed the spot where Gov. Goebel fell from a shot fired by an assassin eight years ago. Well, at 9 o'clock the town was full of people. With two good bands of music and the soldier boys and Lexington cadets in full dress, marching and keeping perfect time, it recalled to my mind scenes in the 60's. At 11:30 the out-going governor and the in-coming one marched arm in arm through the crowd with broad smiles amid all the shouts and hurrahs from the throng and it made our heart throb with patriotism to be permitted to live in a country like this. Gov. Beckham appeared on the stand to bid the people good-bye as governor of Kentucky and thank them for their loyalty to him and to bid the new governor God speed, with that grace and dignity that becomes a statesman submitting to the majority. Then A. E. Wilson and wife appeared on the stand. The newly elected governor took the oath of office and after a short, but very appropriate talk, it was all over. The people commenced to disperse to quiet themselves down for four more years. My crowd took the train for Georgetown to hear some of the Caleb Powers trial. We went at once to the court-house and found it packed with people. Judge Morris, the trial judge, is about 70 years old but well preserved in body and mind. He is the very picture of intelligence. I sat there and listened to his rulings and I must say I never heard fairer, firmer nor more impartial rulings in my life. He is a judge in every sense of the word. They had Youtsey on the stand and kept him there nearly all the time I was in the city. Well, I must come to a close for fear I weary the readers of the I. J. I will ring off.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Penny's Drug Store.

The Host—Now, Freddie what part of the turkey will you have?

Freddie—I'll take a wing, the neck, some white meat off the breast, a drum stick the gizzard and some stuffin'. Ma told me not to ask for a second helpin'.

Simple Remedy for La grippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. G. L. Penny.

Americans spent $11,000,000 less for precious stones and pearls during 1907 than they did during 1906, according to the figures given out by the collector of customs. In 1906 the importations amounted to $43,573,488.

The First National Bank of Kansas City was dynamited but the motive for the dastardly deed is lacking.

MATRIMONIAL.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Hargis, daughter of Judge James Hargis, to Dr. W. P. Hogg, was celebrated in Jackson.

As there are 80,000 more women than men in Massachusetts, leap year can't do them much good unless they leap out of the State.

The Countess of Yarmouth, who was Alice Thaw, of Pittsburg, and a sister of Harry Thaw, has appealed to a British divorce court for an annulment of her marriage to the Earl of Yarmouth.

It has just leaked out that one of the pastors here tied the knot in a secret wedding in Stanford on Thanksgiving. The groom is a Buckeye State resident and his bride has recently cast her lot among Lincoln county people. Guess who they are?

A marriage license was issued to a young applicant this week who had walked to the city—20 miles—impelled by Dan Cupid's darts, for the precious document. He immediately started on his return to meet at the altar that night his fair partner for life's journey.—Somerset Journal.

On Wednesday, Jan. 1, Alvin Adams and Miss Avarilla Livingston, a popular young couple of the East End, drove to Stanford and were quietly united in the holy bonds of wedlock in the parlors of the St. Asaph Hotel. The bride and groom were accompanied by Leslie Anderson and Miss Ethel Hollas, and Pettus Hayes and Miss Wagie E. Hollas, who, with a few other close friends were the only ones to witness the marriage. The marriage ceremony was performed at 1:30 P. M. by Elder J. G. Livingston, father of the bride. The wedding is a happy culmination of a lengthy courtship that knew nothing of lover's quarrels. After receiving hearty congratulations from all present Mr. and Mrs. Adams drove to the home of some relatives where they are spending a few days. They will go to house-keeping soon and the best wishes of the entire community go with them. The bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Livingston and is very attractive. She is popular in church circles and a devoted worker for the Pine Grove Sunday school. Mr. Adams is to be congratulated on winning the heart and hand of such a charming young woman and one who will make an earnest helpmeet for life. The groom is an excellent young man of 20 years and is esteemed by all who know him. Industrious, energetic and upright, he possesses only those traits of character which belong to a noble young man. The writer can voice the sentiment of a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Adams a long, happy and prosperous married life. May their joys be multiplied and their sorrows lessened; may their future path of life be bright and inspiring; may it be strewn with flowers and not with thorns; with pleasures and not with sorrows; may nothing mar their happiness or obscure their enjoyment as they travel along the journey of life; may their hopes and aspirations ever be as bright as they were on their wedding day.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. G. L. Penny.

At a conference between Gov. Wilson, R. K. Smith and H. A. Walker, representing the American Tobacco Company, held in the Governor's office, Mr. Smith agreed to arrange a meeting between the Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society and President James B. Duke, of the American Tobacco Company. State Senator J. W. Newman has prepared a resolution which will be introduced on the first day of the coming session of the General Assembly for the appointment of a committee of seven members to investigate the tobacco conditions thoroughly and report the causes for the recent disorders.

It Does The Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Beginning yesterday the Baldwin Locomotive Works, of Philadelphia, will run on an eight-hour instead of a 10-hour basis. The reduction in time will affect 15,800 men and boys and is equivalent to the suspension of more than 3,000 persons.

E. T. Wooten, an aged citizen of Barren county, dropped dead.

NEWS NOTES.

Mt. Vesuvius is in active eruption again.

Muncie, Ind., has been placed under martial law, owing to the street car strike.

Miss Lizzie Myers, aged 16, is under arrest for picking pockets in St. Xavier's church in that city.

Assistant State Mine Inspector Spillman has condemned the Royal mine at Madisonville. He says it is a death trap.

Kite flying as a cure for the nervous ills of people who devote most of their time to the labors of society life, is advocated by Dr. J. B. McKenzie, of New York.

Gov. Willson issued a statement denouncing the night riders' raid on Russellville. He offered a reward of $500 for advance information of the formation of mobs.

W. R. Beaumier, editor of the Hallettsville Herald, was shot and killed by his wife as he was entering his office. Mrs. Beaumier was arrested and placed under $2,000 bail.

At Brookhaven, Miss., a mob took a Negro, charged with murder, from the officers by throwing a lasso about his neck. He was then shot to death in the central part of the town.

At Richmond Judge Pritchard, of the United States circuit court, appointed R. Lancaster Williams, of Richmond, and S. Davies Warfield, of Baltimore, receivers for the Seaboard Air Line Railway.

Garrett Hedden, a desperado who, six years ago, murdered his brother in Polk county, Tennessee, was shot and killed by Sheriff Biggs, of that county. Hedden's 18-years-old son was shot by members of the Sheriff's posse.

Miss Eliza Owens, who was prevented from delivering her crop of tobacco several days ago, took advantage of the burning of a tobacco barn at Germantown and moved her crop to Maysville while the crowd's attention was attracted by the blazing building.

Circuit Judge J. W. Sandig, of Russellville, says if it is necessary he will call a special term of the Logan Circuit Court to investigate the night riders' raid on Russellville, but he hardly thinks this is necessary, as the regular term of court convenes the first week in February.

Judge Garland, of the Federal court at Sioux Falls, S. D., issued a temporary injunction restraining the State Railroad Commission from reducing passenger rates from three to two and one-half cents a mile. The temporary injunction follows a similar restraining order issued last October.

The special term of the Christian County Court, called to investigate the raid of the night riders on Hopkinsville, was convened in that city Friday. The grand jury was chosen by lot, and in a vigorous charge Judge Cook told the jurymen that they must agree to enforce the law or step aside.

George A. Pettibone and Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with complicity in the murder of former Gov. Frank Steunenberg, of Idaho, were set free Saturday. Pettibone was acquitted by the jury and the charge against Moyer was dismissed on motion of the State.

Two carrier pigeons reached Boston Thursday from Minneapolis, a distance of nearly 1,200 miles, one of them bearing a message from Mayor James C. Haynes to Mayor John F. Fitzgerald. The birds were owned by Louis Thiel, of Roxbury, and reached their loft at 9:16 A. M., having left Minneapolis on Saturday.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lunghealing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Always, demand Dr. Shoop's Bough Bure. Penny's Drug Store.

Services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and night by the pastor, Rev. S. B. Lander. Morning subject, "Absalom, the Prodigal, who never Returned." Evening subject, "A Man with a Measuring Line."

Disturbed The Congregation. The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. G. L. Penny.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Obe Harrison seriously wounded Taylor Delph in a shooting scrape at East Bernstadt.

Burglars entered the hardware store of Brownlie & Arnett, of Pineville, but got nothing.

Paul M. Goodloe, of Richmond, died at Alexandria, Va., and his body was shipped to his old home.

Napier Adams, clerk of the court of appeals, has given C. S. Wilson, of Williamsburg, a clerkship in his office.

I. F. Stone & Sons Co., of Louisville, made an assignment to John P. Davis, formerly of this place. The assets and liabilities are not known.

The aged Rev. Martin Owens, of Rockcastle, has suffered a paralytic stroke and has lost his speech. This excellent old gentleman has been preaching for nearly 50 years.

Dal Donaldson, of Knoxville, who is charged with killing General Douglass at Tunnel No. 8, near Hazel Patch on Christmas day, returned, and at his examining trial was held over to the grand jury in $5,000, which he gave.

A Parkersburg, W. Va., dispatch says: J. W. Francis, of Lancaster, Ky., fell from a fourth story window in the Commercial Hotel to the ground and escaped with a few bruises about the face. Francis is recovering from an operation from appendicitis and was leaning out the window to get some air. He fell 60 feet and was not rendered unconscious.

An engineer for the Q. & C. Railroad in this city said to a Times reporter that his crew was expected to soon be put to work on estimating the cost of rebuilding High Bridge. There has been a four mile order of this bridge for sometime, and the company is very anxious to begin work at once on its reconstruction. He said that it would cost in the neighborhood of $900,000 and that it would take about a year to complete the work.—Somerset Times.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Twentieth Century Fund of the Free Methodist church in England has reached $500,000.

An old Dutch Bible found in the Humansdorp district of Cape Colony has a frontispiece depicting Cain shooting Abel with a blunderbuss.

On account of the arrival of Rev. Walker, Capt. D. H. Goyen did not preach at the Christian church Sunday morning as advertised, but he will preach next Sunday morning.

At the Christian church Sunday morning 99 of the 144 pupils enrolled were present and 13 of the 15 teachers were in their accustomed places. Mr. C. E. Tate was elected superintendent of the Sunday school for the "steenth" time.

The Regular Baptist Church of Richmond having sold their half of the church property on Main Street, intend to erect during this year a new church building. Meantime they have secured the use of the house belonging to the Second Presbyterian Church for services.—Register.

The subject next Thursday night at the Methodist church will be the book of John. All are cordially invited. Come and join in the singing. Sunday morning the subject will be "The Word was God." John 1:1 Sunday night the Epworth League opens at 6:30 with Marshall Stone leader. Preaching at 7:10. Subject, "The Authenticity of the Scriptures." Pastor.

FROM THE ANTILLES.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by all druggists.

After having been totally blind for 12 years, Mrs. Julia Strove, 76, of Covington, suddenly regained her eyesight. Cataracts had formed over the optics, and several days ago she felt a peculiar itching about the eyes. The light grew brighter and clearer, and now for the first time in many years, she is able to read newspapers.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for Coffee. Penny's Drug Store.
